Meli is a pristine Italian-built yacht available to charter in Greece and explore the pristine waters of the Ionian and Aegean seas with the experienced Captain Dimitris at her helm. Having benefitted from an extensive refit every year since her launch, this beautiful Ferretti offers luxurious accommodation for up to eight guests, with a versatile layout to suite couples, families and corporate events alike. Meli is a popular charter vessel helmed by a passionate crew who will show guests the very best that Greece has to offer. Guests can expect exceptional service and out-of-the-ordinary cruising destinations, from idyllic islands to pristine beaches.

An intelligent exterior design has created numerous outdoor living spaces. On the foredeck large sun pads offer an unmatched spot for sunbathing, and the sheltered aft deck holds a dining suite which is perfect for casual meals. Up a level is the impressive sundeck; whether at sea or at anchor, guests are sure to spend hours on the sundeck enjoying the sweeping Greek vistas whilst relaxing on the large C-shaped sofa and sun pads. Meli's outside spaces are complemented by her large range of water toys, which include two tenders, an endless list of towables, SeaDoos, canoes, a SUP and fishing gear.

The bright and light filled interior boasts large windows, rich wood paneling and elegant soft furnishings. Connecting directly with the aft deck, the fresh and elegant main saloon is arranged over two levels, offering a separate lounge and dining space without compromising the flow through the vessel. Four cabins provide an excellent arrangement for both families and groups. The full beam master and the VIP cabin both hold queen sized beds and benefit from en suite facilities, suitable for both the romantic getaway and a couples holidays. The third cabin offers twin beds, whilst the fourth is arranged as a bunk room which is sure to appeal to children.
